

To graduate from Pinewood beginning with the class of 2012 you will be required to earn service hours. These service hours must be pre-approved by Lou Ann Farrow (ext. 30). A student may begin earning service hours once they have completed the 8th grade. The class of 2012 will be required to earn 25 service hours. The class of 2013 will be required to earn 50 service hours. The class of 2014 will be required to earn 75 service hours. The class of 2015 and any class graduating after 2015 will be required to earn 100 service hours.
